

Lemon Emigrant

Scientific name : Catopsilia pomona

English name : Lemon Emigrant

Family : Pieridae

Habitat : Found below 1000 meters in elevation

Body Size : Wingspan around 90-115mm

Distribution : Widely distributed throughout Hong Kong

Wingspan : Approximately 32-37mm

Body Characteristics : Wings are primarily yellow in color. Females have more developed black markings on the hindwings compared to males. Males have a white sex brand on the upper side of the hindwing discal cell.

Features : Present throughout the year, with the highest numbers in early summer Exhibits polymorphism (multiple forms). Flies at a high speed.

Food : Larvae mainly feed on host plants such as Celtis sinensis and Sophora japonica. Adults primarily feed on flower nectar.