

Copper Leaf

Scientific name : Acalypha wilkesiana

English name : Copper leaf

Family : Euphorbiaceae

Origin : Pacific Islands

Growth habits : Evergreen shrub

Leaf : The leaves exhibit a rich variety of colors, including copper-red, green, purple, and pink. They are alternate, broadly ovate in shape, with soft and lush texture, and have serrated edges.

Flower : Monoecious, with pale purple as the predominant color.

Tree characteristics : The Red Velvet prefers high temperatures and humidity, has low cold resistance, and is not frost-tolerant.

Flowering period : Throughout the year

Ecology : Red Velvet has strong disease resistance and is easy to cultivate.